TRIP DESCRIPTION

Lodges

For those of you who enjoy the out-of-doors but prefer not to camp, the Rogue's lodges provide a comfy bed and hot shower each evening. Each lodge has its own character and tends to be rustic. The lodges also provide the perfect riverside venue to review your day's adventure—lounging beside a stone hearth or perhaps learning about the local history.

None of the lodges have designated single accommodations. If you're traveling on your own, please call us to discuss current bookings and room configurations. Solo travelers should expect to share accommodations with someone of the same gender.

After each active day on the river, we pull ashore to the lodge for the night. Upon arrival, our first task is to unload the boats using a fire line of crew and passengers to expedite the process. Individuals then collect their waterproof bags and head to the lodge to check-in for the night. In the morning, after breakfast is served, the gear will then be loaded onto the boats and we'll head downstream to see what new adventures await us.

Meals

The meals at the lodges are hearty and delicious, complete with fresh ingredients and a variety of foods. A typical day might start with eggs, bacon, fruit, orange juice, and lots of coffee or tea. Lunch on the river might be a delicious spread of cold cuts and cheeses with several types of bread, or pitas stuffed with veggies and hummus. There are always cookies and a cooling drink to top it off. Dinner at the lodges might be barbeque chicken, tri-tip or ribs and desserts are frequent and indulgent.

Dietary Restrictions

We need to know as soon as possible about any dietary requirements we should consider in planning your trip. If you have food allergies or restrictions, we will do our best to accommodate your needs. However, some specific needs can only be met if we charge you a supplemental menu fee to cover our increased costs. If you are a vegetarian or vegan and you let us know well in advance, we can provide meals for you without additional cost. We cannot always provide for the same diversity or sophistication as our regular menu for special dietary requests.

Beverages / Alcohol

In addition to the bounty of wine tasting we provide, a limited supply of beer and alcohol is generally available for purchase from the lodges with the exception of Black Bar Lodge. You are welcome to bring your own favorite beverages, alcoholic or non-alcoholic, in non-glass containers. If you choose to bring additional drinks or alcoholic beverages, please let us know in advance. Otherwise, you will need to have cash on hand for drink purchases. For your safety and the safety of others, the consumption of alcoholic beverages is limited to the lodges.

Specialty Trips

- Wine on the River: Our wine trips offer an elegant alternative to our regular departures, and combine mouth-watering menus and award-winning wines with the appeal of the wilds. After each day of vigorous river rafting, enjoy gourmet meals and premium wines introduced by regional experts. The wines are carefully chosen to complement the bill of fare each night and each winery brings its own personality to the river, where tastings can turn into blending seminars or informative discussions of Old World versus New World wine making. Rest assured that whatever direction we take, these trips inevitably result in an outrageously good time.

Boat Options (see photos at www.oars.com/our_adventures/river_ratings.html)

- Oar Raft—The O.A.R.S. flagship, oar rafts carry the bulk of the gear on most of our multi-day adventures. They are the most stable of whitewater craft, are inflatable rafts that your guide pilots with long oars from a center-mounted aluminum frame. Ample deck space allows for lounging in calm stretches, sturdy weight and width give your guide confidence to hit the big waves head-on. (Two to four passengers)
- Paddle Raft—The sportiest of crafts we put on the water, everybody handles a paddle while the guide gives directions and steers with oars from the stern. Paddling together is essential to finding the right run, and team work begets success. A thrilling way to brave the rapids! Helmets required. Ask an Adventure Consultant about this option, as it is not available on every trip. (Four to eight passengers)

- Inflatable Kayak—Also known as duckies, inflatable kayaks float low to the water, putting you in touch with the pull of the current and splash of every wave. On most trips, double and single inflatable kayaks are available, depending on group size. 12 years is the minimum age in Class III rapids, 7 years for Class II rapids. Helmets required. (One or two paddlers per boat)

Hiking / Side Creek Exploration

Each day varies, but on an average you'll spend 4-6 hours a day on the boats. The rest of the time will be spent hiking and exploring, wine tasting and eating, or just relaxing at the lodge. While we generally plan at least two guided hikes on each trip, there is ample opportunity for the curious to explore the area at length. Please let your trip leader know if you are an avid hiker and remember to bring extra water bottles and good shoes. Remember that all hikes are optional and you can choose to relax at the lodge or on the beach instead.

Fishing

The Rogue is a fisherman's paradise. There are four species of trout that live in the Rogue, though only steelhead is commonly seen on our trips. Two species of salmon also make their way up the Rogue to spawn in their place of birth. Chinook salmon can be seen fighting the rapids once in the spring, and again in the fall. Generally, June, July and August water temperatures are too warm for fishing. The Coho, also known as the silver salmon, make a fall run only. The most abundant seasonal period on the Rogue is from September through mid-November and offers some of the West's best fly-fishing.

You'll need to bring your own gear. Please bring your rod protected in a hard case. On the Rogue, you will need a Steelhead and Salmon permit as well as a general Oregon fishing license. If you prefer, you may purchase a 4-day pass (which includes both) at $43.50, which can be purchased upon arrival at Morrison's Lodge. Non-residents of Oregon can buy a short-term fishing license by calling 800-720-6339. You can also purchase one on the Internet at <https://or.outdoorcentral.us/or/license>. Call the Department of Fish and Wildlife at (503) 947-6001 for up-to-date, recorded information about fishing and regulation changes or go online to www.dfw.state.or.us.

The Portable Toilet

During the day, we carry a small container called the "day tripper" that can be easily accessed during the day should the need arise. It is a personal disposable toilet, which includes an odor-proof transport bag, chemical solidifier and odor eliminator, toilet paper and oversized hand wipe.

On popular stretches of wilderness rivers, the common refrain is "dilution is the solution to pollution." We practice this approach by urinating in the river during the day. In the mornings before we head downstream and once we arrive at the lodges in the evening, you will be able to use the bathroom facilities at the lodges.

For Women Only

Even if you aren't anticipating your menstrual period, come prepared for it. We recommend you bring some sandwich size zip-lock bags. They can be used during the day while you are on the river or hiking and can be disposed of when you reach the lodges. (For tampon users: o.b.® tampons are ½ the size of regular tampons, tuck discreetly into pockets and have less paper wrapping). Many women suggest bringing a small supply of baby wipes. We provide some feminine products on most trips for emergencies.

Cameras

We provide a small waterproof bag (17" tall x 9" diameter—approximate sealed size) to hold your camera and other items you might need during the day. While these bags are designed to be waterproof, you may wish to place your camera in a zip-lock plastic bag or waterproof casing for additional protection. We also strongly recommend you take out a rider on your homeowner's policy to cover your camera—especially if it's fine equipment. If you are planning on bringing a digital camera make sure to bring additional memory cards, batteries, and any other extras you will need. Disposable waterproof and panorama cameras are also a fun option.

Electronics & Technology

Many of our guests travel with their smartphone even though there is no cell service. On a trip like this, there is always the risk of water damage to smartphones and other electronic devices, even when they are stowed in a dry bag. If you intend to take your phone with you on the river, consider investing in a small, waterproof container just for your phone.

Communication

Once you are on the river there is limited communication with the “outside world.” Cell phone service is not available. Our guides carry satellite phones which are strictly used to call out in case of an emergency situation on the river. They can call out, but we cannot call them. Periodically the trip leader will check in with our office. If you have someone that needs to contact you about an emergency at home, they should call our office (800-346-6277). If possible, we will relay the message to you. Keep in mind it could be several days or longer before the message actually reaches you. For your family at home you should define for them what you consider an emergency and provide them with instructions to call our office in the event one occurs during your vacation.

Weather

The weather in southern Oregon is quite favorable during the summer months. The days are long and typically dry, making for a pleasant journey. However the weather in southern Oregon, like all weather, is unpredictable. Early and late season trips can bring a wider range of temperatures, and one should always be prepared for rain. Being properly prepared for weather variations is an important factor in fully enjoying your trip.

You may want to check one week prior to your trip for an up-to-date weather forecast. We recommend the following website: www.wunderground.com for weather in Galice, Oregon.

Average Air and Water Temperatures

	Air (Day) °F	Air (Night) °F	Water °F
May	65-75	40-50	58
June	70-85	45-55	65
July	85-95	50-57	70
Aug	85-95	50-57	70
Sept	65-85	45-50	64

GETTING READY

Physical Requirements

Our primary goal is for you to have an enjoyable experience. The nature of the trip is such that it involves some physical exertion and potential exposure to the elements, including cold water, heat, sun, wind and rain. We have experience accommodating people with a wide range of physical disabilities and/or health conditions. However, individuals who are overweight or lack conditioning can endanger themselves, other guests and the guides. Please consult your doctor if you have medical or health conditions that could impact your ability to participate in this outdoor adventure. In general, trip participants must be able to:

- Wear a Type V Coast Guard approved personal floatation devices (maximum chest size of 56 inches)
- Climb on and off the boats multiple times each day
- Navigate uneven terrain on hikes

- Carry your own dry bags (20–30 lbs) from the boats to the lodges and back
- Self-rescue by swimming to a boat or to shore in the event of an involuntary swim in a whitewater rapid

Physical Preparation

Due to the physical nature of this trip, we highly recommend that you engage in regular exercise for at least 3 months prior to departure to ensure preparedness. No gym membership required! Simple exercises like push-ups, sit-ups and squats go a long way to improving core fitness. Start with these exercises and do three sets of ten repetitions each, three to four times per week. Cardiac training is also easy to accomplish without expensive equipment. Take 30–40 minutes two to three times a week and go for a brisk walk, easy jog or bike ride around town. If you have access to a pool, lake or the ocean, swimming is obviously an ideal choice for cardiac exercise. It provides a full-body work-out and is training that may come in handy in the event of an involuntary swim in a whitewater rapid. It is important to push yourself in the months leading up to your trip by increasing your strength training repetitions and the pace of your cardiac training. Getting in shape will certainly add to your enjoyment of the trip.

PACKING FOR YOUR TRIP

Clothing

During the day – Start with a swimsuit and/or swim trunks and synthetic shirt as a base layer. Additional layers, like long underwear, fleece and rain gear, can be added and subtracted depending on the weather, temperature and how wet you're getting in the rapids. Sun protective clothing works better than sunscreen if you are frequently in and out of the water.

At the lodge – After a long day on the river you will want to refresh and change into clean, comfortable clothing. When the weather is warm, lightweight cotton pants/skirt or shorts and shirt make for great lodgewear. Those so inclined may enjoy wearing a cotton skirt or sarong on summer evenings. In the spring and fall, a dry set of synthetic long underwear is the perfect base layer under long pants and a fleece sweater. The lodges are all casual so normal river wear is appropriate.

Footwear

During the day – The best choice is an amphibious shoe that drains water, protects your toes and won't come off in swirling current. A retired pair of athletic shoes can work well, too. Sport sandals with a heel strap are a good option, especially on rivers with sandy beaches.

At the lodge – The athletic shoes or light hikers you bring for hiking can double as your lodge shoes. It's nice to put on dry socks and shoes after a day on the water. Flip flops or "Crocs" are OK for wearing at the lodges only.

Please note: If you buy new shoes or sandals for the trip, make sure you break them in first!

Headwear

Wide-brimmed hats are a good choice for sun protection. Ball caps are also useful since they fit under helmets, which are required attire when paddling our whitewater rivers.

To Avoid Being Cold

Synthetic long underwear is a must-have on river trips. It can be worn under shorts, rain gear, T-shirts, etc., then stripped off when the chill of the morning has worn off. It keeps you warm even if it's wet (which can happen easily), dries quickly, and it's compact enough to be stuffed into your small waterproof bag or daypack after you take it off. It can be layered under your waterproof rain jacket and pants. In cooler weather a rain jacket and pants work better than a wetsuit, because the jacket and pants can be put on when it's cold, or when you're going through whitewater, then easily taken off when the sun comes out and it's hot. Some folks find that wetsuits don't work as well as they are tedious to put on and take off. Be aware that cotton items, once wet, do not insulate; only synthetic and wool materials will keep you warm during cool, wet weather.

Something warm for your top & bottom: Although the weather will probably be delightful, you need to be prepared for inclement weather. Bring a good fleece or wool top and bottom, along with a warm hat and gloves. You'll want to double up on your synthetic layers so that you'll have a set to wear in the boat and a set of warm, dry clothes for the evening.

May, June, and September Trips: These are surely some of the most beautiful months to be on the Rogue River, but this area of Oregon can experience extreme changes in weather especially during these months. Therefore, it is very important that you come prepared with extra layers and follow the advice in the "To Avoid Being Cold" and "Something warm for your top & bottom" sections above. Even though you may not use every item, it is better to be prepared!

Raingear

Raingear protects you from the splash of the rapids, rain and wind. It is one of the essential items that all passengers should have no matter what time of year you are traveling. Look for jacket and pants that are 100% waterproof, not just water resistant. A hooded jacket is recommended as well as good secure closures around your head, neck, wrists and ankles to prevent water from seeping in. Do not bring a rain poncho as it cannot be worn under your PFD.

Sun Protection

Protecting yourself from the sun should be taken very seriously. A hat, sunscreen, lip balm and sunglasses are a must. In many cases, a long-sleeve shirt is the best method for preventing sunburn on your upper body. Light-weight long pants may also be appropriate to protect your legs.

Bugs & Mosquitoes

Bugs and mosquitoes are generally not a problem on this trip, although it's a good idea to come prepared with a small amount of insect repellent just in case.

SUGGESTED PACKING LIST

Equipment and Personal Items:

Packing Your Gear

At the pre-trip meeting each person will be given one large waterproof bag (13" diameter x 25" tall—approximate sealed size—with a maximum capacity of 2 cubic feet) for your clothing and personal items. We also provide a small waterproof bag for day use where you can keep items such as raingear, camera, sunscreen, lip balm, etc. (17" tall x 9" diameter—approximate sealed size). The bags are cylinder in shape and pack from the top. Please pack light; river and lodge attire is very casual—comfort, convenience and boat space takes precedence over style. At the end of the trip you will return to Morrison's Lodge with your packed waterproof bags where you will be able to unpack your gear for your return trip home.

Extra Luggage

We recommend you take on the river only what's absolutely necessary. Keeping gear to a minimum insures it will fit into the waterproof bags we supply and reduces unnecessary packing and unpacking. If you do have extra luggage it should be locked in your car or stored at your hotel.

Valuables

We recommend that you leave your valuables at home. For necessary personal items such as a wallet, credit cards, etc., we recommend putting them in a zip-loc bag and at the bottom of your waterproof bag with your clothing.

Gratuities

Guests often ask whether gratuities are appropriate, and in what amount. If you feel your guides have provided a very special trip for you, a gratuity may be left with the trip leader and will be shared among the crew. Entirely discretionary, anything between 5% and 10% of the trip cost is a general tipping guideline. If you plan to tip, remember to bring a personal check or cash—ATM's are hard to find in the backcountry!

Something Voluntary

In reviewing your statement, you'll note a $1/person/day donation to American Rivers, a non-profit conservation organization dedicated to Wild and Scenic Rivers. One-hundred percent of these funds go directly to American Rivers, and your contribution is tax-deductible. This donation is voluntary and may be removed from your invoice if you choose not to participate. Please notify our office if you would prefer to delete the donation from your balance.

The O.A.R.S. Foundation is a not-for-profit 501 (c) 3 organization with the express goal of providing opportunities for young people to experience the magic of a river trip. Visit www.oarsfoundation.org to learn more about how your tax deductible donation can change young lives for the better.

Cancellations and Refunds

- If you find it necessary to cancel your trip, please notify us as soon as possible. The cancellation fee after you've made your deposit can range up to the entire trip cost, based upon the number of days prior to your trip that we receive your cancellation notice. We regret we cannot make exceptions for personal emergencies. For this reason, we strongly urge you to investigate trip insurance (see Insurance).

- Cancellations 60 days or more prior to your trip earn a full refund less a $100/person fee. Cancellations 59 days or less prior to your trip are not refundable.
- If you transfer from one trip to another, there is a $50/person charge up until 60 days before the trip. Transfers made after this time will be treated as cancellations.

Medical

Insurance

- Although every effort is made to insure a safe trip for all, we strongly recommend that you protect yourself, your belongings, and your vacation through the purchase of a short-term traveler's policy. A trip cancellation policy covers your non-refundable payments in most cases, should you have to cancel your trip at the last minute due to illness or injury. Trip participants should realize that in the event of illness or injury on an adventure travel trip, evacuation can be prolonged, difficult and expensive. Personal belongings and cameras are carried entirely at the owner's risk, and O.A.R.S. accepts no responsibility for lost, damaged, delayed or stolen property.

Liability Waiver

- Everyone is required to sign a standard release before the trip, acknowledging awareness that some risks are associated with the trip. Safety is of the utmost concern on our trips. However, due to the nature of the activities, a condition of your participation is that you will sign this form and return it to our office before the trip begins. Anyone who refuses to sign the form will not be allowed to participate, and consistent with O.A.R.S. cancellation policy, there will be no refund of the trip fees at that time.

Responsibility – An Important Notice

West, Inc. and cooperating agencies act only in the capacity of agent for the participants in all matters relating to transportation and/or all other related travel services, and assume no responsibility however caused for injury, loss or damage to person or property in connection with any service, including but not limited to that resulting directly or indirectly from acts of God, detention, annoyance, delays and expenses arising from quarantine, strikes, theft, pilferage, force majeure, failure of any means of conveyance to arrive or depart as scheduled, civil disturbances, government restrictions or regulations, and discrepancies or change in transit over which it has no control. Reasonable changes in itinerary may be made where deemed advisable for the comfort and well being of the participants, including cancellation due to water fluctuation, insufficient bookings (this trip requires a minimum of 4 guests), and other factors. There is risk in whitewater rafting, particularly during high-water conditions. Rafts, dories and kayaks do capsize. You could be swept overboard. Your guide will make every attempt to assist, but you must be strong and agile enough to "self-help" and "float-it-out" without further endangering yourself or others. We reserve the right not to accept passengers weighing more than 260 pounds or with a waist/chest size exceeding 56 inches. We may decide, at any time, to exclude any person or group for any reason we feel is related to the safety of our trips. We are experienced at accommodating people with various disabilities.
